The Washington Cathedral, Massachusetts and Wisconsin Avenues, N.W., is an Episcopal Cathedral rising above Washington on Mt. St. Alban in a setting of 57 acres. Built of Indiana limestone, no steel was used in the construction and there are 300 stained glass windows and seven chapels. The Bethlehem Chapel is shown above.

NATURAL COLOR by Mike Roberts BERKELEY CALIF.

Published for Washington Novelty Inc., Washington, D.C.

C EI

C17294